Political Chips.

hundred and twenty-seven majority. The the majority to seven or eight thousand.

Representative elect from Halifax, upon the ground of a want of residence. Renfrew has lived with his family in Raleigh for twelve mouths.

Beliamy, the Badical Senator elect from Edgecombe, is also a resident of Raleigh, year ago. It is said that Micajah Anderson, Conservative, will contest his sent.

The Wilson Plaindealer says that the result in the Congressional elections in the Second District are so close that had the Conservatives of Edgecombe turned out in fall force O'Hagan and Humphrey would in Edgesombe is 804. The people of that lion. noble old county must wake up and vindiexte themselves in another election.

Quiny. - Would the admission of Wm. A. Smith, Radical Senator elect from Alamanco, and Wilson Carey, (col.) Radical Senator elect from Caswell, be an acknowledgment by the Senate that the people of these counties were in a state of insurrection, and would it be an endersement of Holden's right to declare them so, and thus legalize the organization of his State Will not the admission of the Representatives cleat be also an official re-

Adjulant Coneral Fisher, of Bladen, are believed to be the only two carpet baggers | our Victory_What shall We do with it elected to the Legislature, Lo ! the poor

Miry. They say they were deceived and will be turned. brought to North Carolina for unboly and | The doors of illegally confined prisoners wicked purposes.

to make return of tan money in their sanction of law, will be disbanded; the hands to the Public Treasurer at Raleigh, civil law will be restored to all counties; if they can legally withhold it, until the bad laws will be repealed; internal immeeting of the Legi dature in November, provements will have the benefit of approthe east of the Holden-Pearson-Kirk will be fostered; the State credit will be their roturns citizens ere advised to en- course, which must follow an honest and join them, An injunction may be sued out equitable administration of the State gov-

According to the last remains accounts, the premises. the French armies are new occupying the Our white opponents have used their resentatives by a bandsome majority. line of the Moselle. Their left is at Thion | temporary advantages with a tyrant's ani at Nancy. This line, running nearly North of old North Carolina. Our laws, our cus and Soull, is about fifty miles long, and is toms, names endeated by the most hallowed capable of a riroug resistance. Metz in associations, our sympathics, all have been the centre is a fertress of immense strength. | disregarded and ruthlessly overthrown .-Thionville is also a permanent fortress, They have acted as if they did not desire, while Nancy is defended by strong earth- certainly not to deserve, our favorable con-patches. They have probably been seri- real and lasting hostility to the whites. ceases, that of attacking only when certain of our success.

ly than the Weanch.

The Prussian army has nearly quadru- | welfare alone must be considered.

might go on from year to year almost in- interfere with any civil or political privil-Italy (1859) and Austria (Sadowa 1866), abiding and law-loving people, we will telegraphers, seems to be as follows: the contending powers employed armies protect him in his rights as a citizer. ants have been taken from the plow, the stamp-speakers, the cost of embellishing always the case in all fights on a retreat. work-shop and the counting room, a cessa- the report of the Superintendent of Pub- The French have abandoned Nancy on tion of all production, and a universal lie Instruction with silly cuts of mythical their extreme right, and have fallen back starvation would necessarily ensue from school-houses; in a word, for every and on Toul. Their line is thereby shortened a protracted war.

commencia. They have before them the colored people good citizens, their educa- Metz are entirely absurd, for it is a place and water. line of the Moselle, now defended by the tion should be and will be a question of of immense strength and importance, and concentrated French army occupying the first importance with the Conservative can stand a siege of many months. Its force this line by a front attack, they will equitably divided between the races. find it more difficult than Barnside's at- In every way our victory should be used and thence with Mezieres and Reims. tempt at Fredericksburg. Should they with moderation towards our political op- which is not threatened so far. flank this line and throw themselves be- ponents-but with justice towards North The present position would seem to intween Metz and Paris, without previously Carolina. No false sentiment of chivalry dicate that the French commander intends of its cradle in a cabin near Mankato, they plunged into rebellion nine years he supposed was an attach? of the Wash. The man who leaped into Real's grave defeating Bazaine's army, they will find the defeated, or mistaken kind- to leave open to the Prussians the road to the most of the sundoubtedly income and disclosed the base on Sunday is named James Moulton, and to leave open to the Prussians the road to to leave open to the Prussians the road to to leave open to the Prussians the road to to leave open to the Prussians the road to to leave open to the Prussians the road to to leave open to the public, that paper combined in the supposed was an distance of the supposed was an distance o between Paris, defended by 200,000 men astray from a firm and conscientious per-doubt, of wheeling upon their flanks and a brand of fire.

ATTORNEY GENERAL-Sixty of the eighty- done, and recommends as the best strategy feared from its being wasted by false and nine counties heard from give Shipp four for a French commander to leave open the mistaken notions of policy. Let us obey other twenty-nine counties will increase between the army covering that capital and all parties. Let us vindicate the and his own army. If defeated in such a honor and integrity of North Carolina. Colonel Waiter Clark, Conservative, will position, the Prussian army would find its Let us be sure we are right, then go ahead. contest the seat of John Ronfrew, Radical only line of retreat cut off, while a French. army being in its own country, would find a dozen lines of supplies. These considerations are, doubtless, the reason of the present pause in this gigantic contest.

Judge Tourgee's Letter. As we published the false and malicious thousand. where he married and settled more than a letter of Judge Tourgee to Senator Abbott have been elected. The Conservative loss writer is as manifest as in the first publica- been their chief characteristics."

> The questions are, Who altered th figures? What is the "official source from whence the letter was obtained? Judge Tourgee corrects as follows:

To the Editor of the Tribune: Sin: In your Daily received to-Say, I find opy of a letter by me to Gen. Abbout, U. S. Bens tor from this State. I have not the publishe before me, but notice in its basty perusa transcribing or in "setting up :" 1st. Instead of "14 arsens," I wrote "4 arsens," 2d. Instead of "Four thousand or 5,000 houses opened," &c., wrote "Four hundred or 500." This would be vident from my aggregate statement of crimes In Klux in the district, te-wit, one thousand cognition of the legality of Kirk's opera- lations of the demicil. I have frequently stated made from conversation with citizens in differen Gizzard Prench, of New Hanover, and counties, and from the number of complaints

We have gained a great political victory in North Carolina. It is impossible to sit "EIRE'S LAMBS,"-The Mount Airy down and calmly consider its magnitude News tearns that Kirk's men are deserting, and importance. It can be measured only A great many have passed through Patrick by the dangers from which the State has county, Virginia, and a few through Mt. been saved, and by the uses to which it will be opened; the bands of outlaws, Taxes. -Shoriffs are being advised not committing their depredations under the If they cannot isgally withhold restored. These are morely matters of erament. We will not do the gentlemen The War. The Signation at the Last Ac. justice to call their attention to these mat-of a yast numerical superiority. At Woorth, The worthless and irresponsible strangmore than double their number; and at fully and wickedly labored for its ruin, It is evident that the French altogether must be extracted. We would fail in our miserable strategy. Being in chief com Coroner Allen empanelled a jury yesterday the Prussian system of organization brings betrayed their official trusts, and must be declared war and being in his own coun- being rendered. Cooper was at once arpled its numbers, since the declaration of war, while the French reserves are just bewar, while the French reserves are just bewar, while the black man must be made to from the very start, and soon opened the understand that social equality cannot be, for he had less distance to traverse. Conthe sympathy so generally manifested door for the more unscrupulous among the belief that he has acted only to further amount of general legislation required.—

Besides these important matters, increase impo This war exhibit a new and striking will not be permitted to control the Govrepaired by new levies and thus the war disposition upon the part of the whites to the armies.

any purpose but the sacred object for and strengthened, and it assumes the form The difficulties of the Frussians are just which it was raised. Desiring to make the of an L. All reports of the evacuation of

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL in front of them and Bazaine's army mov- formance of our duty to the good people rear while they are attacked in front by NORTH CAROLINA. ing at once upon their rear and cutting of the State. Timid men did not organize the French armies covering those cities. off all communication with their base. In |or win this victory, and their counsels his almirable work upon strategy, Jomini, should not be permitted to render it who is recognized as the highest authori- nugatory. While there is much to lose ty, supposes this very case of a German through an intemperate and inconsiderate army entering France, as this one has use of our success, there is more to be

Political Chips. ATTORNEY GENERAL. - Judge Shipp's ma jority in sixty-seven counties is four thousand seven hundred and fifteen. This leaves twenty-two counties to hear from, which will increase the majority several

LES HOLDEN LOCK OUT .- The New we give the following corrections (?). The York Times, one of the ablest, most influ-Editor of the Tribune, however, denies ential and respectable of the Republican altering the figures, and declares he pub- papers, says that "it our party managers lished it as he received it "from an official would win victories they will expel the source." The corrected statement differs | Holdens from their conneils, and discard only from the former in the enormity of the intolerant prescriptive temper, and he falsehood. The wicked purpose of the the reckless abuse of power, which have like novel reading ought to read this book,

THE REASON WHY ?- The Raleigh Standard says : "But we still four the ques tion of U. S. Senator had much to do with the late disastrous result in Republican ranks." This is surely Holden's thrust at man, may possess as genuine an interest

Doubtless Abbott thinks Holden and Kirk had something to do "with the late disastrous result in Republican ranks." We expect both are right in their con-

"Burgen."-A letter from Jonesboro' Tennessee, the home of Burgen, the Lieu tenant Colonel of "Kirk's lambs," says that Burgon has sent by express five hundred dollars to his family. Burgen, it known, did not have money enough to pay his passage on the cars when he left hom-Where did the money come from?

THE gain of four members of Congress in North Carolina has convinced the Radicals that they have to rely upon the North to carry the next Congress. In this view of the matter the Radicals feel that their tenure of power hangs upon a very slender thread. For instance, the Philadelphia

North in the coming elections. If Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York are reasonably true to them- to give Mr. Earle a very warm greeting walkist. His paths have not been the to the broad sunlight of peace and securiselves, we will save it. If not, we shall lose it. That Congress is a matter of vital importance. It is a thousand times more so than the choice of beautifully bound and admirably printed credit and squandered the bonds of the Prosidents before the war. Upon it may depend the whole structure of the government-its faith, on excellent paper. It is published by State to the amount of many millions. He that it may not be not to pay any part of priations in their behalf; public education its henor, its very existence. The issue itself is one that transcends administrations and am > be. The chances are all in favor of the it for subscribers at the retail price in which all the fighting was on Holden' Democrats, and the Radicals are driven to Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York as cleeted to the Legislature the seeming in their last hope. The Democrats are workters and point out to them their duty in probability of making large gains, amply ing, at Myrtle Grove Sound, some eight judges, and re-established the inquisition is to act with your masses upon the frac- for several days prior to the homicide be- point of the bayonent and under the tend tions of the enemy's army, or, in other tween Mr. Bishop and a negro named Gee. more than our Rip Van Winkle friends of words, to be always in stronger force than Cooper, who hails originally from Du- North Carolina could stand; and, now, the enemy at any point of conflict. This plin county, caused by the accu- Holden cries despairingly : "We walk dai-The Prossisus are now in front of this The negroes have been entreated in vain is a problem which able commanders have sation that said Cooper a ly here on the brink of a volcano! The make a dispatch to the Gazette, announce-Toro than a week has clapsed since to aid us in our struggle in behalf of North solved successfully, even with inferior pocket book from Mrs. Westeett. On the question is, why should such a man select ing that Grant had sent additional troops the battles at Woorth and Ferback. After Carolina. We fought for the common forces. The fact that the Prussians have evening in question the parties met at Mr. advancing up to Low Etangs and Faulque- welfare of both races. We have won in beaten the French in the recent battles by Westcott's house and some words ensued. In the time of war Hol- subject of some sharp comments. The most, the Translan outposts have fallen spile of their opposition. Politically we overwhelming them with superior num- Cooper went off to his cabin and asked for den walked away from all dangerous places. Gazette did not like our mixing it up in back beyond St. Avoid and Forbach, and owe them nothing. We have borne with bers is therefore a proof of their good an iron bot which he had brought off of the peaceful retreat the disgraceful business, and takes us to have been of the 26,000,000 of bonds, there has been no further lighting since. patience and forbearance conduct which strategy, which, tegether with rapidity of the beach a few days previous, but failing ever, he is a valiant soldier, with his men assure our cotemporary that we had no Some of the described that the described the harshest response, preferring movements, enabled them to mass superior to find it, armed himself with an axe, and at arms under Kirk, and cries: Rob me idea of making it a point of attack or cen-Pressing loss in the late battles were to attribute it rather to the result of forces at the decisive points and at so returned to where Mr. Bishop was. He the exchequer, Littlefield, an thou lovest sore, except so far as it seemed to justify actual, just indebtedness of the State and very severe. The delay in their advance undue excitement and unnatural preju- great a distance from their own base. In- then dared Bishop to strike him, and me: an thou art a loyal Republican, rob Grant and Holden. Its article of yesteris a better proof of this fact than any des- dices, fostered by bad men, than to any deed, too great praise cannot be awarded the latter, exasperated by insole; ce, expect of Holden, will be to walk away whatever. It gives its full sanction to the to the leaders of the Prussian armies for finally did strike him with a small from the break, leaving the "old Tar- scoundrelism of Holden, and sustains the Public Instruction should have full powers onsign erippided themselves, and they are compelled to pause in order to re-organize purposes than the just punishment of have directed their operations. In many constructed Redicalism.

> > -Telegraphic Absurdities.

The skill and promptness with which they stick. Immediately upon his so doing heels the ratio of an empty cash box as President in sending troops to be used by Holden as he sees proper. It also abuses subject. their shattered corps and to wait for re- either or both of these two classes. The respects the campaign, so far, resembles in Bishop with the eye of it, just over the left or both of these two classes. The put in proper hands at once, with instruction of the comparison of the comp inforcements. It is probable, also, that | welfare and glory of North Carolina must | points the opening of the Waterloo cam | ear, fracturing the soull and inflicting a they intend to carry out the system by be the object at which we aim and to which paign by Napoleon in 1815. The Prus- mortal wound as before stated. Mr. Biswhich they have gained their recent suc- we must devote the advantages and power | sians have already won their Ligny; but hop was about nineteen years old. it may yet be followed by a Waterloo.

injury. The fange of the vipers at least against great odds shows the Er peror's was of no avail. It was still worse not to bring up his re- Court.

Now, we see Prussia and France each call- raised for educational purposes by taxa- were retreating across the Moselle, and the glory and prosperity. -Boston Journal. ing out, for the first campaign, upward of tion and otherwise, shall be honestly ap- Prussian vanguard attacked the French a million of men. It is, in fact, the whole propriated. The white and black chil- rear-guard. The latter stood their ground nation on each side called to arms. This dren of the State have been cheated out of long enough to effect their retreat, and innovation in war must make the struggle bundreds of thousands of dollars, gone to very brief; for it would be impossible for any country to maintain long such ener- lature, the salaries of incompetent and success in consequence. The very brief; for it would be impossible for any country to maintain long such ener- lature, the salaries of incompetent and success in consequence. The very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap claimed a success in consequence. The very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the anthors reap very brief; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the mous armics; and us most of the combat- worthless officials, the expenses of Radical retreat, also claimed the victory. Such is the railroad connecting it with Thionville

The telegraphic cable seems to have devoted itself just now chiefly to the propagation of canards. Strasbourg has been invested and bombarded by 60,000 men, when suddenly we find that it has not been attacked at all. Then a corps of 30,000 men, which we had never heard of before, road to Paris and to shut up the invaders the laws. Let us deal justly with all men finds its way there, and gets in quietly, in unwarranted and unprovoked cruelties spite of the 60,000 men who are supposed have been practiced by Kirk's men in to invest the place. Then the Empress, who was reported to have taken lodgings in St. John's Wood, London, with the that some of them have been wickedly Prince Imperial, is now imploring permis. and wantonly maltreated. The Raleigh sion to pass through Belgian territory on her way to England, as if she could not sail from Harve or Calais in case of need. The last dispatch states that on the 15th the Prussians made a reconnoissance, but in Yanceyville last week that Patton was their vision was obstructed by the dust i hand up by the thumbs three times, to the self-control which they have maintained from which they inferred that the French murder of Outlaw.

It would seem rather as if the dust had obstructed the vision of those who send such bosh all the way across the Atlantic

"Bringing in Sheaves."-People who recently issued from the pen of the distinguished Evangelist, Rev. A. B. Earle. Such readers would find, that a simple, the experience and observation of a real with fixed bayonets and locks cocked, and just rebuke of a virtuens public indignaas any fiction can arouse. This book con- of Stephens, on penalty of instant dea h tains accounts of protracted meetings His vile accusers t the same time declared voters. Their whole plan of reaching various parts of the Western world, from New Brunswick to California, Several sermons are given in full-among them were a set of liars and thieves, and that if the sermon on the 'Unpardonable Sin,' the general doctrines of which, we think may be gravely questioned, but which seems to have been instrumental in the conversion of some five thousand souls! There are thrilling accounts, too, of extraordinary conversions, of pungent conviction under remarkable circumstances; and his colleagues will ery out for mercy and the kind, Christian spirit (towards all and swear they never did these things pious people of whatever name) which the whole work evidently evinces, cannot be too highly commended. As the dis- administration. tinguished author has already promised From the Augusta Chrodicle and Sentinel Rev. Mr. Hiden to assist him in a pro tracted meeting in this city, some time during the Fall, the interest of his book of North Carelina, has become alarmed olinians should everywhere be emulated. will, for some readers, be greatly enhanced utters a doleful, lugubrious cry of distress. by this circumstance. Those who read He says "we walk daily here on the brink trol, will bring out every State from the deeds, "The salvation of the new Congress is with the Bringing in Sheaves" will be prepared of a volcano." Truly, Holden is a bad wilderness of wretchedness and despair when he comes in the Fall. The book is paths of peace, nor his ways the ways of ty. subscription only, and cannot be had at walked into the school fund and into the the book stores Rev. J. C. Hiden, of The Press is frightened, and well it may this city, will take pleasure in procuring Alamance county, raised "a rebellion," is Boston-$1 50, or $2-according to style side. He arrested some of the best citi

Case of Homicide. -- A distressing case Constitution, suspended by force the ing like heroes in these States with every of homicide occurred last Tuesday even- beas corpus act, intimidated the State sufficient to give them the House of Rep- miles from town, and at the residence of a men to make them confess to secret com-Mr. Wescott, Mr. Biram Bishop, a young- plots against Holden and Holden's governor brother of Mr. Geo. Bishop, formerly ment. Holden, therefore, is in fear and ville, their costes at Metz, and their right mosity. They have hardly left a vestige The War-Superiority of the Prussian Sergeant on the police force of this city, Strategy Actual Position of the Armies receiving a wound of which he died within walking that Holden has done, is that he

The fundamental principle of strategy It seems that some ill-feeling had existed sma-hed it to pieces. Radicalism, at the

Geo, Cooper is said to be a stupid negre The French have behaved with their eighteen years old, and was not thought forshadows its downfall in all the former all from a Republican source. We gave MacMahon's 50,000 were overwhelmed by ers who have governed our State, and wil. usual gallantry and have no doubt made to be viciously inclined before this sad oc the Prussians pay dearly for their victory. currence. Dr. Noreum, of this city was a matter of necessity. The old it by its well known correspondent, bir. Forbach, Fressard's corps of 30,000 were must be rendered powerless to do further But the very fact that they had to contend called in to Mr. Bishop, but surgery and will not be, tolerated, and that he sidering the well-earned reputation of the in America for the cause of Prussia in her them to become plunderers and robbers. the interests of local political factions.— This will demand unusual working French as a military people, a surprising present struggle with France does not The fruits of the carpet-bag reign of the And that fact is this: A few weeks before arise from any feeling of hostility toward last five years are what might have been adjournment Senator Pool came to the re-full and free consultation and co operafeature. Hitherto wars have been fought ernment, nevertheless the privileges guaran- degree of incapacity seems to have existed the French people, nor even dislike of expected. The world may be searched in porters' gallery and called out a gentleman time and tree consultation and co-operation. The force and efficiency of the by portions only of the regular armics teed to him by the laws of the country will heretofore among those who were charged them. It has its origin, rather, in hatred vain for governments so immoral, so shamealone. The waste of one campaign was be respected and vindicated. There is no with the administration and direction of one campaign was be respected and vindicated. There is no with the administration and direction of one campaign was be respected and vindicated. the cause of republican France, embraced those now prevailing in the South. Polit- him a North Carolina newspaper in which of opinion. They should, therefore, at the first opportunity to betray that cause lically they may be changed, but this can-The actual situation of affairs when and set up an imperial form of govern not cure one of the serest of the evils aldefinitely. Even in the last great wars in lege he now enjoys. Nay, that, as a law-cleared of the mystifications of blundering ment in its stead. For this and kindred ready inflicted. These scamps have run greath length. The Senator went on to ment in all that is done. Let the highest the States they rule ruinously into debt.— say quite confidently that it was desirable good of the States and the people he they they hope for his downfall; but for the The Legislatures controlled by them have the Chronicle should at once begin the The fight on Sunday last (the 14th) was French people they have the kindest feel- pledged the States to the discharge of pe- publication of this collection, and keep it not exceeding 250,000 or 300,000 men. Our Legislature must see that the money clearly a rear-guard fight. The French ings, and wish them a full measure of cuniary obligations of crushing weight, to up until the statements made should be

The Fall Elections.

An Albany amendment has been kick-

The Jardin at Paris has received an

Mixing aconite with the plum preserves solution that way. Fine peaches sixty cents a bushel at Columbus, Ga.

From the Danville, (Va.) Register. The Tortare of Prisoners in North Care

lina. However much the Radical press North Carolina may attempt to cover the villainy of their leaders and palliate the outrages of their hired militia, the fact remains beyond all question, that the most several notable instances. It is vain that they assert that their prisoners are humanely dealt with, when the public know Standard denies that Mr. Patton, of Alamance, was hung up by these militia, but we have the best testimony that he was source that Kirk himself publicly asserted cracktics which were inflicted upon Mr. and drive the people to violent resistance robberies. It F. A. Wiley, former Sheriff of Caswell, by some of Kirk's irresponsible soldiery. -Wiley was seized while at work on his farm ; he was denied the privilege of going to his house for a change of apparel; h was placed on a bare back hors, his feet ment he was trotted off to Yancevville. there, bound at the mercy of these wretches. he was ordered to confess to the murder him he had as well own up at once. Me Wiley, prappalled by such threats, simply replied to these fellows belily that they too brave a man to be intimidated by their menaces or humbled by their cowardly

After awhile, when the scene shall change, when law and order shall be restored and when an entraged community and State shall seek to visit imple justic upon the authors of these crimes, Holden But the facts will remain all the same, a and an everlasting damnation to Holden's

HOLDEN'S CRY OF DISTRESS.

Holden, the fighting Radical Governor pleasaniness. He walked into the State lands of the S ate as an owner in fee simzens-grey-haired old men-put some i has walked into the Republican party, and ership of Holden and Kirk, was a little More About the Villains Governing North and too much in debt, to allow a dollar to me the exchequer. The next walking we day satisfies us that we did it no injustice

MENTS BREAKING UP.

Grant's administration in North Carolina mony from a Democratic source; it was war the rule of the carpet-baggers in the published in the Gazette, and written to success of the Union arms. The inroad of Mr. Boynton says :

be speedily brought to an end.

ing a girl to death for making faces at his why the honest men in these sorely plun- conversation, and in due time the State the famous Haunstein forgery case, which dered States should not band together, militia has appeared upon the scene." orang-outang that washes itself with soap thieves that despoil them. All the issues should not remember it. It appears from isn't considered an improvement in a South class of old citizens accept the situation in of Ku-Klux outrages, murders and rob- by a young woman who, with sweet simstrong positions. Should they attempt to party. The Educational Fund will be communication with Paris is assured by Carolina family, which plicity, asked "how long does it take to A wild cat attempted to take a baby out the States what they have not had since sary, Pool, made his request to the person the wharves is called sport in Charleston.

Grant's administration. They sustain him tured Ku-Klux outrages; and then, in due by their votes, and he maintained them time, the other part of the diabolical proby his bayonets. Their downfall will gramme was produced—the State militin herald his overthrow. But let those who appeared upon the scene. Here was a put which made his defeat both a necessity and a certainty. The people will tolerate no such slogan now, any more than then. Orderly proceedings through the ballotbox will prove to be the efficient, as they journals. are the only tolerable, mode of effecting this reform.

From the Richmond Dispatch. THE POLITICAL PROSPECT.

The late election in North Carolina is one of the happiest events since the war. so punished, and we have it from a reliable Virginia set the exemple which the Old to use the militia extensively; and if this North State followed; but the North Carolinians have afforded a singular example of hung up by the thumbs three times, to ex- greatness of soul in the forbearance and amidst the circumstances clalculated in There can be no doubt either, about the the last degree to inflame the public mind | Ku-Klax to their oppressors. The whole South will full under the influence of this brilliant example, and be ry the State election. Such is Lepublican cheered by its grand results. The rule of tostimony, and the Enquirer has used no rascally earpet-baggers is broken, and so other in exposing and denouncing the will the low and blackguard politicians tied under the horse, and in this predica- who have been seeking that elevation to office from the colored race, which they knew their domorits deprive them of amongst the whites, be beaten and dis. it calls the statements of James Boyd and pointed narrative of actual occurrences in court house, surrounded by armel men pirited, and finally, cowering beneath the others about the atracious purposes and tion, seek refuge in obscurity.

These persons have had no hope but in the uneducated and deceived colored which the eminent author has held, in they had evidence of his pull and told power rested upon the rain of the country the prostration of the public confidence and energies, and the destruction of every branch of industry. The State could not prosper under the rule of the incompetent send an emissary into the Northern States they chose they might fire away. He was and dishonest men who trusted altogether to have such outrages, murders and reli to negro votes for their election to office. It is a grand result for the whole counpower of such men-whose only hope was using military force, would they he itate. in sowing dissensions in society and engulfing all the public interests in the seal of misgovernment,

All the people should be cheered to conparty distinctions or impediment issues that could only bring discord upon their rages; would they hesilate to forge conblot and a stigma upon the Radical party councils. The welfare of society, the peace of the State, the very safety of the women and children, demand this union and harmony. The selvation of the South | confessions. The confession of Pool shows rests upon this noble combination of all what unscrupulous rascals Holden & Co. good people for the good of all.

The elevated example of the North Car-Their stoicism under outrage, their grand victory over themselves in their self-con-

EADICALS AND NEGROES. The election has settled one thing beyoud change-the negroes will never vote what they have to do, that is, what is with the Republican party again in a body necessary to be done to put the ship of in this State. Many of them voted with State in the best possible trim for her pest the Democrats this time; the refusal of the two years' voyage. white Radicals to support the negro Jim | We propose briefly to note some things Harris for Congress in the fourth district, which ought to be done, and in the best and the defeat of most of the other negro and wisest manner : candidates in the State, has opened the 1. The Augean stable must be cleansed. eyes of the negroes to the fact that while Never was one more filthy or demanded a the carpet-baggers and native scalawags more thorough cleansing and purification. consider the negro a very good voter they An intelligent committee of five working have no use for him as an office-holder .- | men each, ought to be appointed with There will be a general hegira of carpet- piesary powers to examine into the manbaggers from the State in consequence of agement of each of the State Departments. the result of the election just passed .- to investigate the capacity of each in-Those who have not been obliged to go cumbent and his integrity in its mange before now to avoid prosecution for their ment, the amount of clerical force emrascalities will leave now, except a few who ployed and the expenses of each office. hold office for terms not yet expired .- with a recommendation of what is neces Ruleigh Correspondence New York World, sary for each office, all with the view of

From the Cincinnati Enquirer of August 8th.

We took occasion, a day or two ago, to the brink of volcances" to walk on. And to North Carolina, and that he sustained again, why does he continue to walk daily Holden, the Governor of that State, the powers, to investigate and ascertain the of quiet shades. In time of peace, how- task for our alleged injustice to itself. We who had them, what was done with them

What did the Enquirer do in the prem-The overwhelming defeat of theneral ises? It did not quote a word of testislaveholding States. For a time after the prominence to an extract from a letter dominant class did not take kindly to the Boyaton. We again reproduce the exthe registering and voting to be done or new order of things which sprang from the tract, and invite especial attention to what a governing element from the North was "It seems strange that so little should the natural result; and that it should bring be known here concerning the real condiunderrated the numbers which the Prussians could bring against them, and that brought to a close. They have fearfully lives were not sians could bring against them, and that brought to a close. They have fearfully lives were not brought to a close. They have fearfully lives were not sians could bring against them, and that brought to a close. They have fearfully lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close. They have fearfully lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives were not brought to a close of the lives late insurgents in listening to the advice cause exists for the extraordinary course State twelve months and the county 30 out the reserves of the country more rapid- held to a strict accountability. Individu- try, he should have been ready. It was a rested by the Sheriff and brought to jail to of Andrew Johnson, and arraying them- taken by Governor Holden. One fact, days immediately preceding the election. als must be ignored. North Carolina's blunder to wait for the Prussian attack. await trial at the next term of the Repub- known here to most of the press, has done and to support the Constitution of the lican party and its plan of reconstruction, more than any of the stories from either State and of the United States. gave these adventurers the vantage ground side on the field of action to throw suspi- Basides these important matters, there the future redemption of an enormous well disseminated in the North. He fur- Arrest of Ex-Attorney General Bowden amount of bonds, and to the imposition of ther explained the need of this by saying News was received here on Saturday of onerous taxes through a series of years. - that to carry the State next fall it would the arrest at Charleston, S. C., of Thomas In September, California, Maine and This has been done in furtherance of all be necessary to use the militia extensively, R. Bowden, late Attorney General of Vir-Vermont vote; in October, Indiana, Iowa, sorts of schemes whereby the authors reap and if this collection of outrages could be ginia, (by military appointment.) on a re-Michigan, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mistake States, and well nigh bankrupted souri, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, South Carolina, Virginia and Wisconsin.

these States, and well nigh bankrupted municating all this to the wrong man.— Knox. Mr. Bowden has been indicted by However, he must have ascertained his mistake afterward and remedied it, as the conspiring with George Chahoon and the reign of the carpet-bag robbers must | mistake afterward and remedied it, as the conspiring with George Chahoon and accounts of dire outrage in North Carolina others " to cheat and defraud the State of There would seem to be no good reason began to appear the second day after this Virginia." The indictment grows out of irrespective of past political differences, That letter was dated July 23, 1870, not Bowden will be brought at once to Rich and wreat them out of the hands of the so long ago, we are sure, that the Gazette mond. -Richmond (Va.) Dispatch. which made their advent even a pos- this statement of Mr. Boynton that the sibility have been settled. Let the better publication, at the North, of the collection towns in Massachusetts was recently visited there is no disposition to deprive them of was to justify Holden in the eyes of North- get your photograph after you have left their new born privileges, and there will ern Republicans for the outrages they in- your measure? be an uprising of the people that will drive tended to perpetrate to carry the State out these ravenous villains, and restore to election. Two days after Holden's emis are the outlying supports of General menced the publication of the manufac- no knowledge of him.

invoke a change repudiate all idea of re- up piece of villiainy unwittingly disclosed sorting to violence. It was the threat of by Pool, the emissary of Holden, and pul the Tammany Presidential Convention of lished to the world in the columns of the 1868 that their candidate, if elected, would Gazette, as written out by its own corresbreak up these governments by force, pondent. No Democrat had any hand in getting up that piece of testimony. Its first appearance in the New York Tribune. and subsequently in the Gazette. We used it as we found it in these two Radical

This put up piece of villainy was to be made to appear to Northern Republicans as an honest effort, on the part of Holden. to preserve the public peace and secure a fair election. But Pool let the cat out of the bag. He said that, "to carry the State election next fall, it would be necessary collection of outrages could be well circulated beforehand, it would justify the step in the eyes of Northern Republicans." The base motive was there disclosed for manufacturing and publishin outrages, murders and was to deceive the Northern Republicans, and enable Holden & Co. to use military power to car! scoundrelism of Holden, Grant and the Secretary of War. The Cazette (innocent coul!) wants to know why the Enquirer don't publish what acts of the Ku-Kiux ? These pretended statements made their appearance a day or two before the election (which was last Thursday), and there is every reason to believe they were manufactured potten up for the oceasion-by Holden and his fellow reoundrels to influence the election. If each villains could manufacture Ku Kinx ontrages, murders and robberies, and bings published at length, under the smoke of which they might with impunity try, north and south, which breaks the terrify the people and carry the election by think you, innocent Gazette, to manufact ture a dozen such statements as that of Boyd? The villains, by order of the Govlernor, hang citizens by the thumbs and time their noble combination without neck to compel them to confess to what would seem to justify them in their out fessions? The original rascality is too enormous to allow any seruples about such minor considerations as getting up bogus lains as Holden and Kirk have not been shot is pretty strong evidence that the Ku Klux, if they exist, are exceedingly mild mannered men, and not given to bloody

The General Assembly.

The next General Assembly will have a Herculean task to perform. The members thereof should therefore calmly and care fully investigate, while they are at home.

reducing the expenses of each Department to a living standard. We are too poor be spent needlessly and improperly. 2. An able committee of five, seven or nine, perhaps nine would be better in order to provide three sub-committees of three each to divide the work, with plenary frauds and mismanagement of the N. C. bonds, also of the Railroads, Penitentiary matters, &c., to ascertain, if possible, what have received for them, and what is the what shall be done to re establish the credit of the State

4. The revisal of the Code should be

5. The present plan of registration and as to make it less expensive and to prevent more effectually fraudulent voting. Every precinct that gives 500 votes should have a distinct voting place, with suitable poll keepers and registers and challengers, all one and the same day. This would require less time, less expense and be more effec tive. The registers should be required to good of the State and the people be then constant aim, and all will be well. Raleigh Sentinel.

is to come up for trial in September .-

A photographer in one of the country

Catching twelve-foot tiger sharks from